Pilgrims being fleeced as costs soar

Biswajeet Banerjee
PRAYAGRAJ

With an unprecedented 45 crore devotees converging at the Sangam for the Maha Kumbh, pilgrims are facing severe price gouging for essential services. From exorbitant boat fares to overpriced food and transport, those arriving with faith and devotion are being forced to shell out thousands even before stepping foot onto the sacred grounds.

A boat ride to the Sangam, which is officially priced at Rs

150 per person, has become a luxury few can afford. Boatmen are demanding anywhere between Rs 1,000 and Rs 1,500, leaving pilgrims with little choice. "This is extortion in the name of religion," fumed Ashok Verma, who had come from Lucknow with his family. "We wanted to take a holy dip, not be robbed blind!"

Some pilgrims, especially the elderly, are struggling to pay such hefty amounts. "I saved for years to come to the Kumbh, but I never imagined I would be spending thousands just to get to the Sangam," said a visibly upset Geeta Devi from Madhubani, Bihar. The ordeal doesn't end at the river. Pilgrims arriving by car or bus are facing another financial hurdle — transport from the parking bays to the mela ground. With no regulated local transport, opportunistic youth are charging Rs 500 for a ride covering barely 2 kilometres.

"I could have walked if I wasn't carrying my luggage," said Somnath Sanyal, a Prayagraj resident. "But Rs 500 for such a short ride? It feels like we are being looted at every step before we even reach the Kumbh!"

Even basic necessities like food and tea have seen a steep price hike. "A simple meal that should cost Rs 50 is being sold for Rs 150," complained Sunita Yadav, a school teacher from Jhansi. "And tea? Rs 30 for a cup of water with a hint of milk. If this isn't loot, what is?"

Some vendors are justifying the prices, citing high demand and transportation costs. But for middle-class and poor devotees, the sudden spike in expenses is forcing them to cut back. "We are sharing one meal between three people," said Anwar Sheikh, who travelled from West Bengal with his family. "Faith alone cannot fill an empty stomach."

Ram temple

LUCKNOW

Acharya Satyendra Das, the chief priest of Ayodhya's Shri Ram Janmabhoomi temple, passed away today at the Sanjay Gandhi Postgraduate Institute of Medical Sciences (SGPGI) in Lucknow. The hospital confirmed his demise. He had been admitted to SGPGI on February 3 following a stroke and was undergoing treatment in the neurology ward's high-dependency unit (HDU).

According to SGPGI Director Dr. R.K. Dhiman, Acharya Satyendra Das was receiving continuous medical attention under doctors' supervision. Besides the brain stroke, he was suffering from multiple ailments. Despite all efforts, his life could not be saved. Uttar Pradesh Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath had visited the hospital a few days ago to inquire about his health.

Wave of Mourning in Ayodhya

The Ram Janmabhoomi Teerth Kshetra Trust expressed deep sorrow over the passing of Acharya Satyendra Das. A sense of grief has enveloped the temples and monasteries of Ayodhya.

Sparks fly as MVA architect
lauds MVA govt toppler

Kalpesh Mhamunkar
MUMBAI

NCP SP chief Sharad Pawar's decision to honour Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Eknath Shinde with the 'Mahadji Shinde Rashtra Gaurav' award in Delhi on Tuesday has sparked a controversy in Maharashtra. Pawar not only felicitated Shinde but also praised his work and leadership, leading to a strong backlash from UBT Shiv Sena.

UBT Shiv Sena MP Sanjay Raut criticised Pawar's actions, expressing his party's displeasure. "Eknath Shinde deceived and toppled the MVA government. Therefore, Sharad Pawar should not have felicitated Shinde, this is our party's stand," Raut stated. He argued that honouring Shinde hurt the sentiments of those who view him (Shinde) as a 'traitor' to Maharashtra.

Further, Raut condemned Pawar's praise of Shinde, calling it a "shock to the pride of Maharashtra". He questioned Pawar's decision, pointing out that Shinde had allegedly split the Shiv Sena with the help of Union Home Minister Amit Shah.

"Pawar not only felicitated Shinde but indirectly praised him for his effective leadership: 'Pawar has admitted that Shinde was a better CM than Uddhav Thackeray.'"

Raut also criticised the organisers of the Marathi Sahitya Sammelan, questioning the connection between the felicitations and the literary event. He accused the event of becoming a platform for 'political brokering' and criticised the involvement of the BJP and RSS in the programme.

UBT Shivsena leader Priyanka Chaturvedi supported Raut's stance, stating that Shinde should have been honoured with the title of 'traitor' instead.

In contrast, BJP leaders condemned Raut's comments. State BJP president Chandrashekhar Bawankule claimed that Pawar had praised Shinde for his effective leadership: "Pawar has admitted that Shinde was a better CM than Uddhav Thackeray."

Ex-Prez's son
Abhijit rejoins
Cong after 4

Former President Pranab Mukherjee's son Abhijit Mukherjee rejoined the Congress on Wednesday after a four-year-long placid stint in the Trinamool Congress.

The former Lok Sabha MP was given the Congress membership at the party's state headquarters here in the presence of AICC general secretary and West Bengal in-charge Ghulam Ahmed Mir. Regretting his decision to have joined the TMC in 2021, Mukherjee said, "I apologise for this; it was not right for me to leave the Congress."

"This is my second birthday in the Congress and politics," Mukherjee told reporters after being handed over the party flag by the national and state leadership.

Claiming that there is no alternative to the grand old party in the country's politics, he said, "Only the Congress takes along all people irrespective of their caste, creed and religion." Mukherjee said that he had expressed his desire to rejoin the Congress in June last year, but owing to different state elections, it could take place now.

YET ANOTHER
BLOW FOR UBT
Ex-MLA Rajan Salvi to join Shinde
Sena, may become MLC

Prajakta Pol
MUMBAI

Former Rajapur-Lanja MLA Rajan Salvi has dealt a significant blow to the UBT Shiv Sena by stepping down as the deputy leader of the party. After much speculation, he is now set to join the Shinde faction of the Shiv Sena on Thursday. After his defeat in the 2024 assembly polls, there was strong speculation that Salvi might join the BJP. However, he has chosen the Shinde Shiv Sena instead. Amid rumours of his exit from the UBT Shiv Sena, he has now made it official by resigning as the party's deputy leader.

He is set to officially join the Shiv Sena on Thursday at 3pm in the presence of Deputy Chief Minister Eknath Shinde. This move is considered a significant setback for the Thackeray faction in the Konkarn region. As a result, discussions about 'Operation Tiger' gaining momentum in the region have resurfaced.

For a while, there was strong speculation that Salvi might join the BJP. However, he avoided directly commenting on these rumours. He had stated, "I am a loyal Shiv Sainik of Balasaheb. I have always worked in line with his vision and will continue to do so."

However, Salvi is reportedly leaving the UBT Shiv Sena after repeated police inquiries about his assets and internal party disputes.

Salvi has held various positions, including those of corporator, municipal council president, district chief, (three-time) MLA, and most recently, deputy leader of the UBT Shiv Sena. His entry into the Shinde Sena is expected to strengthen the Mahayuti in the Konkarn region. There is also speculation that Salvi may get an opportunity in the legislative council, as he has reportedly been given such an assurance.

SC dismisses
Indrani's plea

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Wednesday turned down a plea filed by Indrani Mukerjee, the prime accused in the murder case of her 25-year-old daughter Sheena Bora, seeking permission to travel abroad.

"The trial is at an advanced stage. You can complete the trial and then go," remarked a bench of Justices M. M. Sundresh and Rajesh Bindal as it directed the trial court to conclude the pending proceedings within a year.

"There is no guarantee that you will come back," added the Justice Sundresh-led bench as it dismissed the plea seeking permission to travel abroad. In 2022, the Supreme Court granted bail to Indrani, considering her long incarceration of 6.5 years and the unlikelihood of completion of trial shortly.

Indrani, who was an accomplished media executive and socialite, was married to media baron Peter Mukerjee but later divorced by mutual consent while in incarceration. In 2015, she was arrested for murdering Sheena Bora.

Manipur awaits new
CM, Congress fears
President's Rule

Digjyoti Lahkar
GUWAHATI

The buzz over President's Rule in Manipur grew on Tuesday as the ruling BJP remained undecided on who will become the next Chief Minister even three days after Biren Singh's resignation.

As BJP leaders gathered at Hotel Imphal to meet state BJP in-charge Sambit Patra, tensions escalated between party leaders and the opposition over the delay in resolving the stalemate.

BJP legislator Karam Shyam strongly dismissed claims of a constitutional crisis in the state. "I think there is no constitutional crisis in Manipur," Shyam told reporters outside the hotel.

"I don't know about the President's Rule, but I believe the leadership crisis will be resolved by the Centre with the help of legislators," he said.

Shyam, however, remained non-committal when asked about the expiry of the six-month interval between two consecutive sessions of the state assembly. "Let's see what happens," he added.

Earlier in the day, Patra had a closed-door meeting with Governor Ajay Kumar Bhalla. The meeting, which lasted nearly an hour, ended without any public statements from Patra, who quickly left the Raj Bhawan without addressing the waiting media.

In sharp contrast, Manipur Congress Chief K Meghachandra criticised the Centre's delay in appointing a new Chief Minister, calling it a clear disregard for the people's mandate.

"The Centre is deliberately delaying the process, pushing the state into a constitutional crisis," Meghachandra alleged.
